For nervous women there is no better tonic and nervine than Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It cures the discases which produce nervousness in women, irregularity, debilitating drains, inflammation, ulceration and female weakness. It tranquilizes the nerves, encourages the appetite, and induces refreshing sleep.

"When I began taking your medicine I was not able to stand on my feet ten minutes at a time," writes Mrs. Hattle Borradalle of 13 Spring Street, Nashville, Tenn. "Had failing of sterms and kidney and liver disease, and was so weak and nervous I could not keep atill. Would take nervous spelle and almost die at times. I had several different dectors attending, but they could not de me any good. The last one I had said would never pet up again. Told him that I was taking your "avorite Fee scription" and "Golden Medigal Discovery," and he said. 'Might just as well take that much water each tay.' But I thought I would give the resellment of the trial. Before I had Snished the first two bottles I was able to get outside the house and walk around the yard. I kept o's taking the medicines and they cured me.'

To the Editor of the Alexandria Gazette: I thank you, from the core of my heart, for your ed torial of the 27th of January; and, especially, for your reply and commentary upon the card
of Mr. L. M. Blackford in the Gazette of the 30th ultimo.
It is impossible to believe (as you inthe and legically man) that Mr.

justly and logically say) that Mr. Blackford, cultured and Christian get tlemen, as he undeniably is, could have read the blatart and bald infidel utterances of Bishop Potter, published and reproduced in the Gazette, which are so justly repropered in volume. and reproduced in the Gazette, which are so justly reprobated in your editorials; and it would be fearfully unjust to Mr. Blackford to consider that he could or would tolerate or condone the open and emphatic declaration of untelled in the Holy Scriptures as the revealed and inspired Word of God, and the authoritative spicuously and explicitly oft uded by the new notorious pulpiteer of "Great:r New York," whom Mr. Blackford so warmly champions in his card. Mr. Bisckford protects "especially against Biscop Poster's name being linked with that of the latest upstart unwth that of the litest upstart un-believer (Pearson) who has gained the ear of the public," yet, whose infidel utterances Bishop Potter unquali-fiedly endorses; and, mirabile dictu! Bishop Petter declares that Christian believers "must throw aside the dogmas of an infallible Bible, as completely and frankly as Protestant have thrown aside the Protestant have thrown aside the dogma of an infallible Pone."

Par nobile fratrom! Notwithstand ing Mr. Blackford's revulsion against the classification of "the Bishop of the the classification of "the Bishop of the strongest and wealthiet diocese in the Episcopal Church, in our greatest city," with the obscure Mithodist man in the West, and "upitert unbeliever who lately made himself conspicious by semi-infidel deliverances as to the authority of the Bible,"—which Bishop Potter commends and adopts. Bishop Potter predicates his unbelief in the Bible upon the necessity of "regaining Bible upon the necessity of "regaining lost intellectual leadership," and of being conformed to "men of science;"—while the Word of God expressly warns against these very sciolists, and the prehend the Infinite Creator!

Yet dare arraigs the whole stupenduous

And as to Bishop Pettor's pride and ambition of "intellectual leadership," contrasts Voit sire-the great prototype of all the gainsaying crew (noth in and outside of the pale of the church) -with true,

A truth the brilliant Frenchman never knew;
And in that charter reads, with sparkling eyes, Her title to a treasure in the akies."

But this is not the first or only ex But this is not the first or only exploit of this prurient and ambitious prelats. On the 30th day of April, 1889, upon the occasion of the Centential celebration of the insuguration of Washington, Bishop Petter stood in God's Holy Temple and insolently insulted the intelligence, and outraged the patriotic sensibilities, of the country, by denouncing Jefferson and Jackson as "yulgarians." Oh! ye gods son as "vulgarians." Oh! ye gods and little fishes! The illustrious Jefferson, scholar, sage, philosopher and champion of man; founder and ex-pounder of our free institut one; author of the Declaration of Independence and the statute of religious liberty; Presithe statute of religious liberty; Freeldent of the United States; Governor of Virginia in the days when her sons were glants in the land;
and distinguished and honored ambassador of his country to the courts of Europe!—and Andrew Jackson, worldrenowned President of the United renowned President of the United States; matchless hero and eage, who, Jefferson himself said, "filled the measure of his country's glory;" and of whom the brilliant and accomplished at the man and historian, Alexander H. Stephens (although a party opponent) write, "He was, indeed, both hero and sage. In him was presented the rare combination of both military and civic abilities of a very high order.
